

BMO for Women in partnership Women Presidents Organization presents

Upon closer inspection: The importance of advisory boards

Connect directly with business owners who have benefitted from the support of an advisory board during key transition stages, like growth, scaling and eventually selling the business.

Join Megan Wallace, Corporate & Commercial Lawyer (Mann Lawyers), Nancy Graham, CPA & WPO Chapter Chair, Elizabeth Kilvert, Founder of The Unrefined Olive, and Joanne Johnson, Co-Founder of Robustion Technologies, as they dive deeper into the development and importance of having an advisory board for your organization.

This exclusive evening is hosted by BMO for Women and Women Presidents Organization, and aims to nurture meaningful discussions and networking between women professionals and women business leaders.

---

Wednesday, June 4, 2025 from 5 p.m. – 7 p.m.

Location: BMO Private Wealth - 1600 Carling Ave Ottawa, 4th Floor

*Light refreshments will be provided **Please RSVP by May 28, 2025

RSVP

Megan Wallace

Corporate & Commercial Lawyer; Not-for-Profit and Charity Law Group Lead at Mann Lawyers

Nancy Graham, CPA

Women Presidents Organization, Ottawa Chapter Chair

Former partner at PWL Capital, Nancy supports WPO members in growing their confidence, leadership skills, and their businesses

Elizabeth Kilvert

Founder, The Unrefined Olive

Former Marine Biologist who is now an Oleologist (think sommelier for olive oil)

Joanne Johnson

Co-Founder, Robustion Technologies

As a serial entrepreneur, Joanne has over 30 years experience in helping organizations understand the drivers of success